

ALBERTA CUP

Zone Boundaries

Athletes must try out in the Zone by which their permanent address appears on a Hockey Alberta Provincial card or Team sheet. Players who live and play in different Zones must try out where they reside.

Northwest and Central Zone Boundary

- From the intersection of Highway 19 and Highway 2 follow 19 West to Devon. Loop around Devon and follow Highway 60 South to Highway 39. Follow Highway 39 West to Drayton Valley; then continue to follow the direction of highway 620 to the Alberta / British Columbia border.
- Drayton Valley and Lodgepole are part of the Northwest Zone. Warburg, Thorsby, Calmar and Devon are part of the Central Zone.

Northwest and Northeast Zone Boundary

- From Wetaskiwin follow Highway 2 North to Athabasca; continue on Highway 813 to Wabasca; then further North to the Alberta/Northwest Territories border.
- Millet, Beaumont, Bon Accord, Morinville and Legal are part of Northeast zone. Wabasca and Athabasca are part of Northwest zone.

Northeast and Central Zone Boundaries

- From Wetaskiwin on Highway 13 to Camrose then along Highway 26 to Kinsella and further along Highway 14 to Alberta-Saskatchewan border.
- Wetaskiwin, Irma, Wainwright, Chauvin, are in Central Zone. Camrose and Viking are in the Northeast Zone.

Central and South Zone Boundary

- From the Alberta/British Columbia border directly East to Highway 72; then East along Highway 72 to Drumheller; then East along Red Deer River to Highway 570; and finally along Highway 570 to the Alberta/Saskatchewan border.
- Crossfield, Beiseker, Drumheller, and Oyen are in Central Zone. Airdrie is in South Zone.

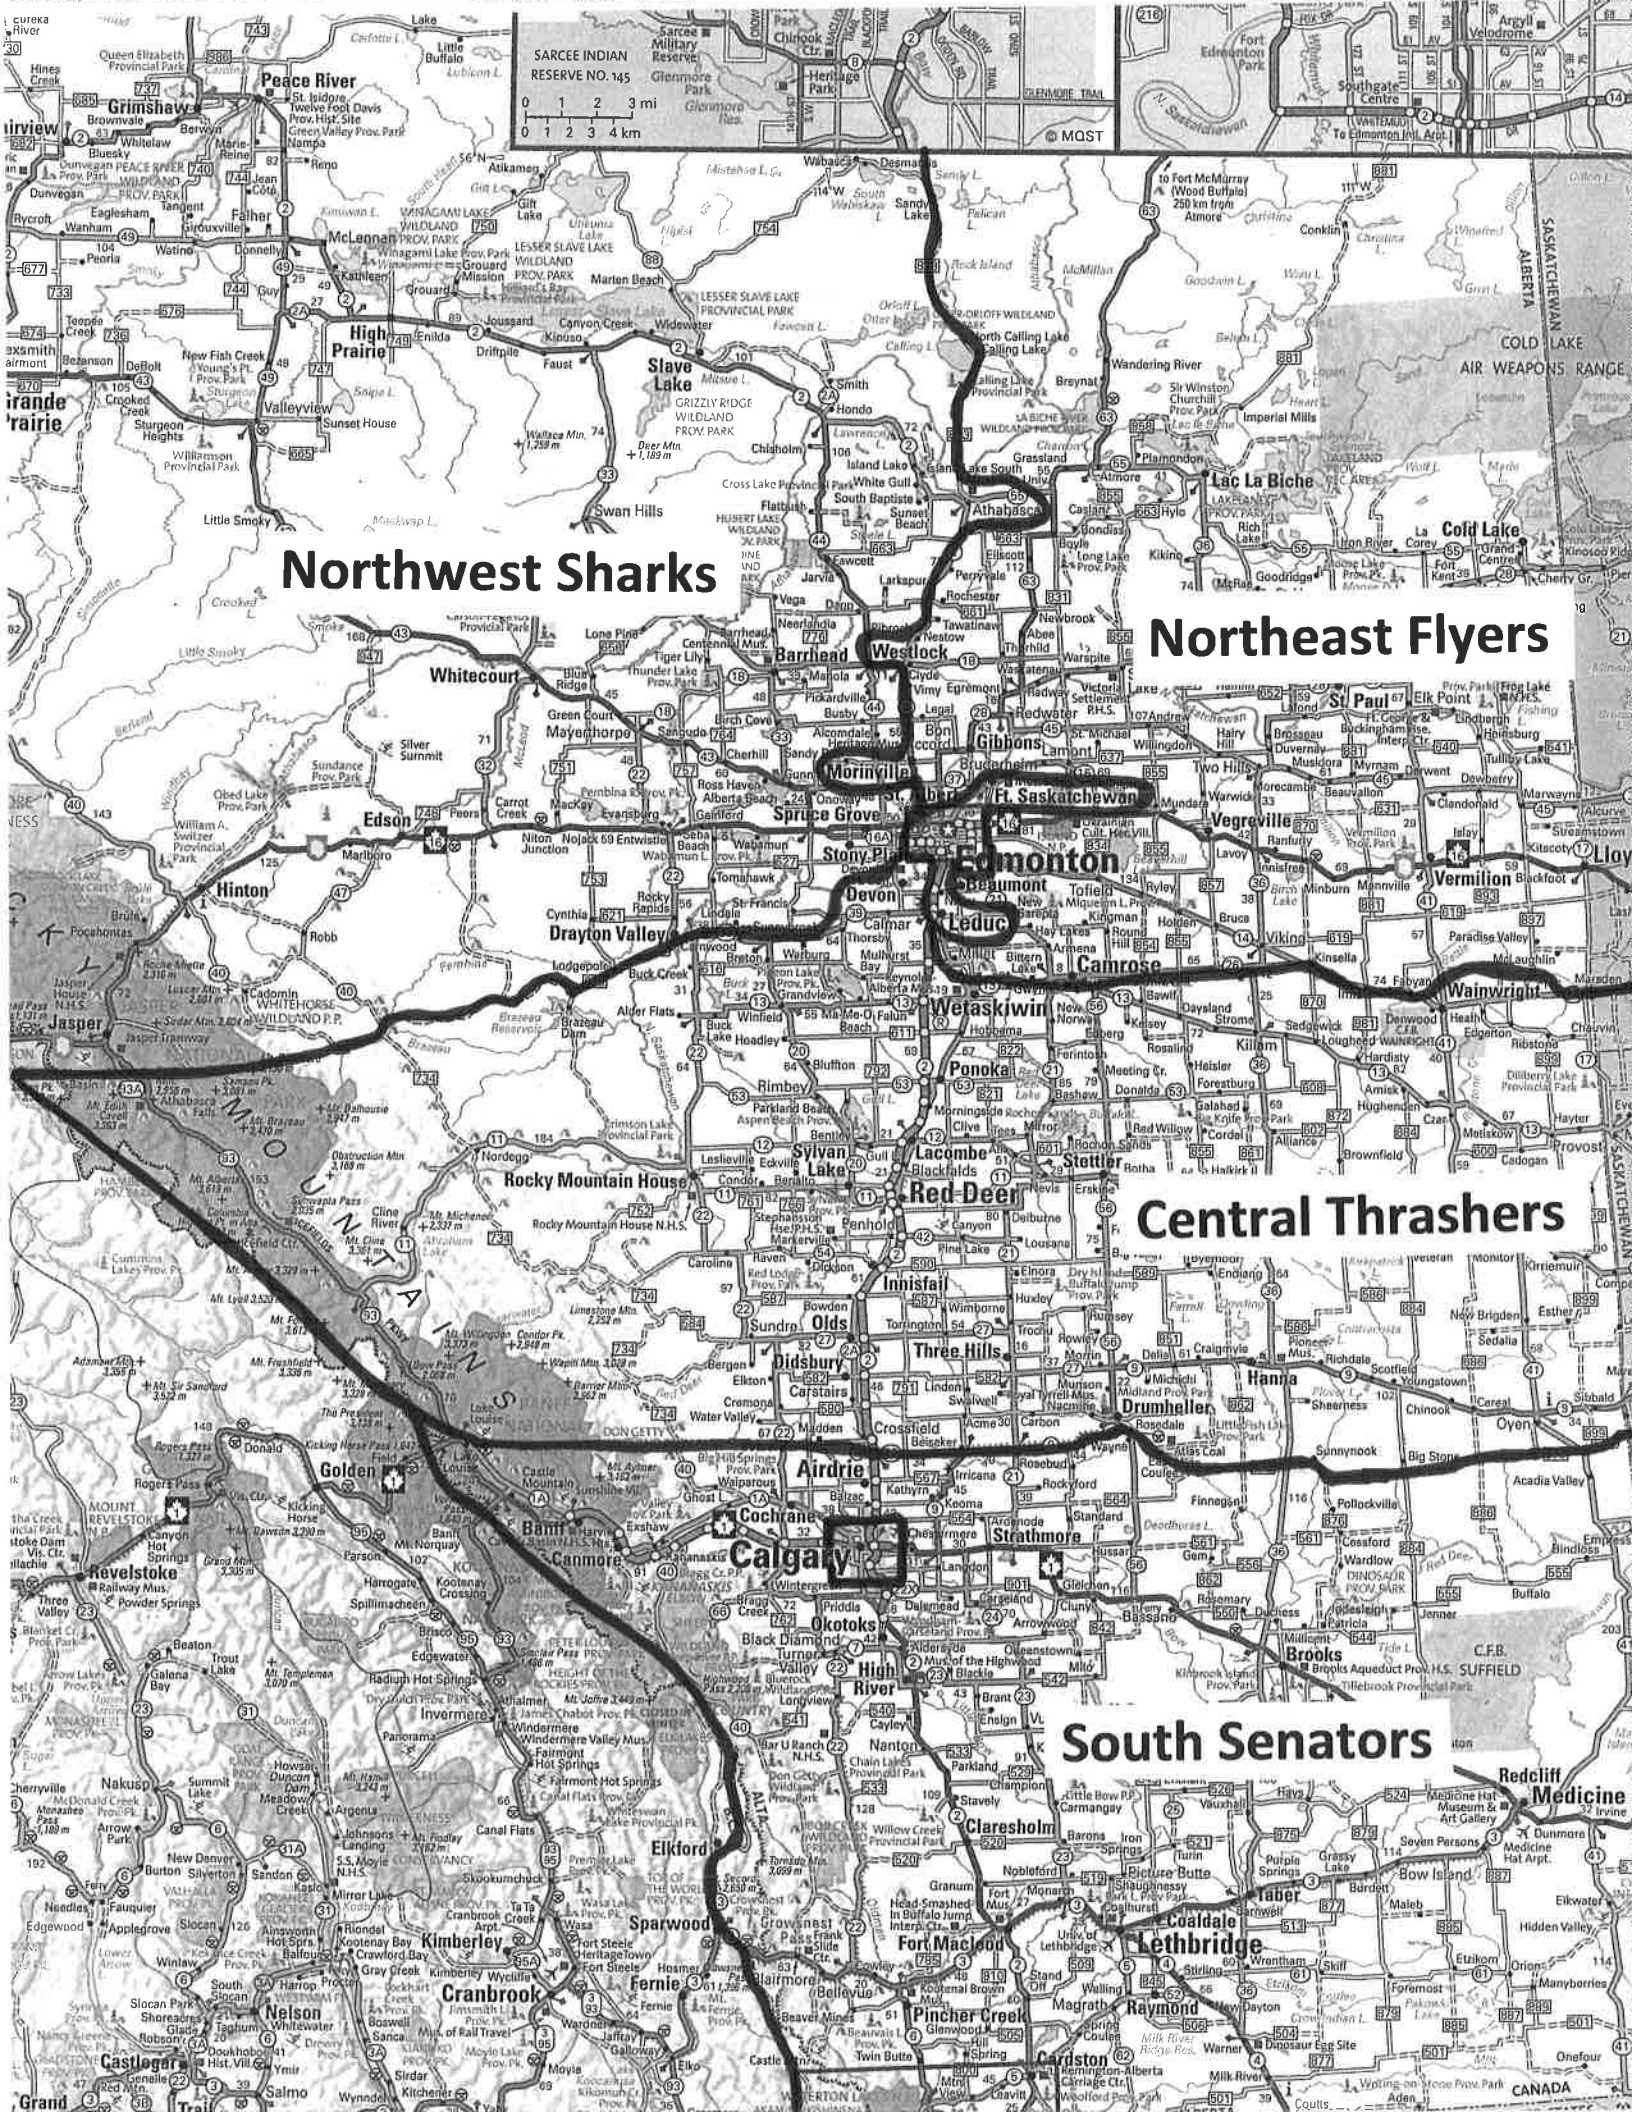

Edmonton North and South Zones

- The river divides the north and the south of Edmonton. Edmonton North then extends East from the NE corner of the city to loop around Fort Saskatchewan and then joins back up with the Edmonton City limits. Edmonton South extends South along Highway 2, loops around the Leduc city limits and runs back North along Highway 2 to the Edmonton City limits.

NOTE: Knights of Columbus players are split by the river as well.

Calgary North and South Zones

- The MHAC quadrants divide the north and the south of Calgary. All players that fall into the NWAA and the NEAA reside in the Calgary North Stars area. All players under the Calgary Buffaloes association and the SWAA fall into the Calgary South Flames area. All Community teams fall under the 'AA' boundaries as set by MHAC.

Northwest Sharks

Northeast Flyers

Central Thrashers

South Senators

