

SANCTIONING GUIDELINES

UPDATED AUGUST 2013

BELOW ARE EVENTS/ACTIVITIES THAT ARE SANCTIONED OR NON-SANCTIONED FOR PURPOSES OF TEAM AND/OR SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Administration	Notes & Conditions
Ice and Facility Rentals: (Arena/Town/City "Facility" Use Agreements/Contracts)	Coverage only applies where agreement does not include a "Holds Harmless" clause (A provision in an agreement under which one or both parties agree not to hold the other party responsible for any loss, damage, or legal liability. In effect, this clause indemnifies the parties on a unilateral or reciprocal basis (as the case may be). See also indemnity clause. Where agreement includes such a clause, the burden of responsibility lies with the signor and not Hockey Canada. If the contract requires minor hockey to indemnify and hold harmless the municipality or facility owner, and if it does not contain a phrase limiting minor hockey's responsibilities to claims arising out of minor hockey's activities, then the following should be added to the indemnification and hold harmless section of the agreement: "Except claims arising from the negligence or responsibility of the lessor/ municipality or facility owner". For clarity, contact the Hockey Alberta office.

UPDATED AUGUST 2013

Events that ARE NOT Sanctioned	Comments
Road Blocks	Considered high risk events
Non-Hockey related activities	Hockey Canada insurance not designed to cover non hockey related activities.
Car Rallies	Considered high risk events
Community Festivals / Parades	Community Festivals / Parades will likely have their own insurance. Hockey Canada will not cover the event.
Other Sport Activities (including in-line hockey & ball hockey). Examples include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Slo-Pitch • Basketball • Soccer • Swimming • Baseball 	Hockey Canada insurance is not designed to cover other sports against other groups / teams. These activities must be used for skill development within a team. Not exclusively playing the sport against another group and/or team.
Concerts	High risk event, often involves alcohol being served and there is a large concentration of people.
Social Events (Attending NHL or WHL games)	A registered team attending a NHL and/or WHL game as spectators, no coverage is provided.
Wood-Splitting, Bon-Fires, Dunk Tanks, Paintball	Considered high risk events
National Hockey League (NHL) and other professional players participating in an event/practice	Professional salaries are very high and an accident could be very costly. The only exception would be those Major Junior players that have played that year on a Major Junior team.
Blue Line Club, Canteen, Beer Tent	Separate insurance should be obtained for these events.
Non-Sanctioned Summer Hockey – Camps, Practices, Leagues	These leagues are required to obtain their own insurance.
Any lease agreement with a clause that transfers the financial burden to the team for facility negligence. (See Administration section)	Our insurers are not prepared to take responsibility for accidents that occur beyond scope of hockey related activities.
Exhibition games involving non-registered participants (including parents, siblings).	Our insurance policy doesn't cover non-registered participants. Participation would put the non-registered participant at risk without any coverage. Our insurers are not prepared to take responsibility for accidents/situations that occur.
